ARCHITECT'S DRAWING OF NEW REFECTORY SHOWING YOUNG ORCHARD AVENUE FRONTAGE.

Mr. E. Gardner Jacobs Heads Project

By A. J. McNamara

The appearance of steam shovels, bulldozers, and dump trucks on the Bryant College campus has created much speculation among BC students. Stories about a 100-room hotel, a drive-in movie theater, and an extension of the Seekonk submarine race course are circulating the campus.

In order to dispel such erroneous rumors, Bryant Vice-President E. Gardner Jacobs has officially announced the details of the college's new expansion program.

The first step of the program, now under way, is the construction of a two-story, 146 by 60 feet, refectory. The building will be of colonial style with red brick facing and white doorways and trim. [See picture.] It was basically designed by Mr. Jacobs, and the final specifications were done by Mr. Jacobs and Richard C. Ortelova, architect.

The first floor of the refectory will house an enlarged Henry L. Jacobs Memorial Library, four classrooms, and two teacher conference rooms. The second floor will contain a dining hall with a capacity of 420, a faculty dining room, and a kitchen. Entrances to the first floor will be on the long side of the building on Young Orchard Avenue, and the entrance to the second floor will face the Archway of South Hall.

The new building will effect many changes. All dormitory students, who are now eating breakfast and dinner in Scott House and Stowell Hall, will take their meals in the refectory. All Bryant students may obtain noon meals here also. The present "caf" will be changed into a Student Union building. The lower floor will have a snack bar, a television set, lounge furniture, and small games. The second floor which now holds the office machines classrooms, will be used as a lounge and game room for ping-pong and shuffleboard.

The refectory is scheduled for completion by this Christmas and occupancy after the Christmas recess. The Student Union will be in use during the 1958 Spring semester.

Another step in the program is the renovation of Gardner Hall into a dormitory for women. That work will begin July 16, and completion will be before the opening of next semester, September 4. Bryant has been trying to acquire the other half of Gardner Hall for several years, and its purchase from Gen. Chester Files (ret.) was just recently completed through the efforts of Mr. Jacobs. The new dorm will have new furniture and fire escapes and is expected to hold 30 to 40 young women. The classrooms now in Gardner will move to the new building and to the present library. The teacher's rooms in Gardner will also be in the new building.

Plans are also under consideration for a new men's dormitory located within two minutes walk of the main campus and the new refectory. Further details about this building will appear in the ARCHWAY as soon as they are definite.

The construction contract for the refectory has been awarded to the Viola Construction Company of Providence. All work and details of the expansion program are under the direct supervision of Mr. Jacobs.

Henry L. Jacobs—Bryant's guiding light

Lenkowski Elected Delta Omega Prexy

On June 17 Delta Omega held its final dinner-speaker meeting at the Admiral Inn. Mr. Robert H. Graham, Chief Purchasing Agent of Davol Rubber Company, was guest speaker. Mr. Graham, Bryant '49, gave an interesting insight into industrial purchasing problems as they pertain to his company. He also highlighted some features of the purchasing agent's job. An informative question-answer period followed the talk.

Following the speech, officers for next semester were elected by the 123 members. The incoming executives chosen were Armand Goulet, vice-president; Barbara Cranston, secretary; Charles Caverly, treasurer; Joseph Berrelli, assistant treasurer; William Ehrhart, historian.

Joseph Garofalo, retiring president, handed the gavel over to Bob Lenkowski, newly elected president. Bob then presented trophies to the outgoing officers.

In a speech commemorating his election as president, Lenkowski cited that "Delta Omega is only what its members make it. It's up to the members to introduce Delta Omega to students unfamiliar to the organization."

Also in his speech he brought out the fact that Delta Omega has adopted a recognition pin, which is available to all members.

For those unfamiliar with the organization, Delta Omega is the only professional society on the Bryant campus and is open to both A&F and BA students. Speakers from many fields of business are presented to members five or six times each semester. From these speeches members gain immeasurably in knowledge as to fields of endeavor to enter as well as practical information concerning the various professions.

President Honored By Bryant "Family"

Dean Gulski Gives Interesting Account Of College Growth

Dr. Henry L. Jacobs was honored on Thursday evening, June 27, by members of the board of trustees, the administrative staff, the faculty, and the maintenance department—the Bryant "family"—who filled almost to overflowing the Commodore Room at Johnson's Hummocks.

A framed citation from the faculty cited Dr. Jacobs for enduring achievement in developing Bryant, pioneering in business education, widespread influence in educating thousands of men and women, and for giving "freely of his mind and heart to city and state welfare projects."

As the main speaker of the evening, Dean Nelson J. Gulski presented in interesting and painstaking detail the story of Bryant College from its inception to the present time.

Many congratulatory telegrams and letters were read by Professor George Richards who served as master of ceremonies.

REMEMBER—
TODAY IS DOUBLE CUT DAY!

Several Bryant College girls have been doing volunteer work during the summer. These girls are Nancy Coffin, Anna Lee Dryden, Barbara Foley, Eva May Fowler, Regina Laughlin, Jeanette Marston, Sheila Mulligan, and Eileen Baber.

The Providence Chapter of the American Association of University Women is sponsoring a Toy Library for underprivileged children in the Fox Point area of Providence.

Variety of Positions Being Accepted by '57 Graduates

In the tax field, Maurice Cote, A&F senior, will join the Hartford National Bank; in the military service field, Howard Lowe, Allan Coon, and Arthur Conner will enter the armed forces after graduation. Two seniors, Kenneth Haskins, BA-Mgt., and James De Marco, BA-Ret., will join companies in which they are experienced. Haskins worked week-ends with the Sprague Electrical Company during his Bryant career and now will work for the same firm in the export division. De Marco, who was connected with the Silvertown Chevrolet Company on a part-time basis, will join the company now on a full-time agreement.

The final August graduates who have notified the placement bureau concerning employment are John McMillan, BA-Ret., who will join Atlantic Fleet Sales Company; Richard Jearns, A&F, who will enroll under a teacher-training scholarship next semester at Bryant; Raymond Stansard, BA-Mgt., who will be employed by the Shors Chemical Company; and George Kilgus who will work for the Hyman Dick Company as a salesman.

In addition to the August graduates receiving job "plans," the February grads also were recruited by top companies. The "top name" in industry today, General Motors, enlisted five men—Thomas Malcolm, John Fazzina, Roy Plimley, and Richard Farnum for the New Departure Plant in Bristol, Meriden, Connecticut and James McCann, A&F major for their Sandusky, Ohio plant.

One of the top plumbing and heating firms, Crane Company, signed on Frank DiFolco, John Doherty, and William Frank for their management training course; and the Firestone Tire and Rubber Company hired Anthony Gioianno for their West Liberia, Africa, subsidiary.

Once again the insurance field was popular with February seniors as George Dozella, Victor P. Fiedler, William Black, and Joseph Ferreira joined Travelers Insurance Company as auditors; while Roy Heden went into the management training program with the State Mutual Life Assurance Company.

Owens-Corning Fibreglass enlisted the services of two more February graduates as James Smith and Real Remillard joined the accounting department of the firm. Also, the Shell Oil Company assigned Frederick Barnes to its New York office and Richard L. Heurman to its Boston office for accounting training.

Other top companies active in employing February seniors were Sears Roebuck and Company — Raymond Rone, A&F, the J. M. Ney Company of Hartford, Conn. — Frederick Fiedler, BA-Mgt., and the Federal Products Company of Providence — John Ruggieri and Roland Plante.

The work of the placement office combined with student initiative has resulted in graduates receiving an excellent variety of choice positions. It is important for seniors to notify the placement office whenever confirmation of job offers have been received so that their records may be up-to-date and complete for employment purposes.

Several accounting positions have been accepted by August graduates in various and sundry fields of endeavor. Anthony Costantino will enter the field of public accounting in association with Ronald Nany. Theodore Tornquist will train at Price-Waterhouse in Providence in accounting; and Robert Blinn will be connected with the Owens-Corning Fibreglass Company in August.

One of the most popular fields for August graduates is insurance. Some of the companies employing Bryant seniors are Prudential Insurance Company - Robert Fiedler, A&F; Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Company - Richard Hopkins, A&F; and Equitable Life Assurance Society - Matthew Park and Donald Thomas, BA-Mgt. majors.

Toy Library Planned

Newport Club Honors Seniors

The Newport Club of Bryant College at its monthly meeting completed plans for a dinner to honor its graduating members. The dinner is to be held July 11 at the Muncklinger - King Hotel in Newport. Plans were discussed for a beach party to be held some time in July.

"Enterprise"—Key to Success

According to Webster the word enterprise means "an undertaking which involves activity, courage, energy, or the like." This definition should be used as a motto for Bryant seniors as they leave school and begin their climb for success.

An "enterprising" student is one who possesses the qualities of tenacity, resourcefulness, and efficiency. He seeks knowledge through research, not crib notes; he studies assignments, not "scop" notes; and he learns from experience, not from expedience.

The words that characterize the word enterprise characterize an excellent code of ethics for young men going out into the business world.

Industry denotes the extra hours that the graduate should spend learning about his company and his profession. Without this important quality, he soon winds his way down the road to routine and oblivion. An active person is a privative person.

Next, courage is a definite requisite for any business man today. With the many decisions that he is forced to make, he must realize the courage of his convictions and only must shoulder the responsibility for his decision, be it right or wrong.

The word energy perhaps is more apropos to the tennis court or ball field, however, today's student must possess this fact or his future is threatened. The industrious, forward-looking executive must have a sharp mind and quick reflexes in order to respond to the many problems that he must face today. Energy in pushing forward for newer and better things is of prime importance to the executive. His future and that of his company rests on his shoulders.

Thus, by coordinating the elements of enterprise—activity, courage, and energy—today's graduate can and will realize the success that is so close—and yet so far.

EXECUTIVES DICTATE

A class is currently being conducted in which several prominent business executives dictate to an advanced shorthand class, which is made up of students who have completed their shorthand speed requirements.

These dictators bring their own correspondence, which represents their particular business or profession, thereby giving prospective secretaries an enriched background before going into an office.

Among the dictators are two trustees of Bryant College: Mr. Charles B. Cornelius, Vice President in charge of Investments at Rhode Island Hospital Trust Company; and Mr. Norris G. Abbott, Jr., Vice President and Assistant Treasurer of Manufacturers Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

Others are Mr. Arthur A. Sweet, Assistant Treasurer of Narragansett Electric Company, a Bryant graduate; and Mr. Harold Stillwood, Assistant Controller, Gorham Manufacturing Company, and a former Bryant College student.

Sid Levine Awarded Sigma Lambda Pi Trophy

The alumni chapter of Sigma Lambda Pi Fraternity awarded a trophy to Sidney Levine, president of this fraternity and a student in the Business Administration Course at Bryant College. Mr. Levine is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Levine, of 49 Pinehurst Avenue, Providence. This award was made at a banquet held this week at the Rome Restaurant, Attleboro, Massachusetts. Jerome Kaplan made the presentation on behalf of the brothers of the Sigma Lambda Pi alumni association.

This trophy was given in recognition of Mr. Levine's outstanding scholastic and fraternal achievements at Bryant College. It is the first annual award that shall be presented to a worthy Bryant College student who has distinguished himself as a student, citizen, and as an active participant in campus life.

At the Blackboard

Professor Ralph S. Handy

One of the best known and best liked personalities on the Bryant campus is Professor Ralph S. Handy, head of the English Department. Versatility, good nature, and kindness characterize this affable man who has been a faculty member for thirty years. His achievements include the authoring of three textbooks, the teaching of almost every subject in the curriculum, the directing of the college orchestra, and the accumulating of friends whose numbers run literally into thousands.

A native of Winsted, Connecticut, Mr. Handy received his elementary and secondary education there. After graduating from Gilbert High School, however, Mr. Handy moved with his parents to Newton, Massachusetts. He took a year of post-graduate work in Newton High School and then started his college career by enrolling at the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston. Two years later he transferred to Boston University, where he received the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration and later the degree of Master of Business Administration. He did his work in education at the Rhode Island College of Education. Mr. Handy played in the Conservatory Symphony Orchestra and at Boston University. After hours he played with several popular dance bands around Boston.

After graduation Mr. Handy was employed for two years as an investigator for the Credit Reporting Company of New England before he assumed teaching duties at Atlanta University. There he taught economics and other business subjects.

In 1927 Mr. Handy became an instructor of English, economics, and education at Bryant and Stratton College, located at 40 Fountain Street in down-town Providence. During the depression years he taught almost every subject in the curriculum because of the decreased size of the faculty. For a short time during this period he taught at Fitch High School in Groton, Connecticut, where he was instrumental in starting the school band.

In 1933, two years before Bryant and Stratton closed its doors to move up on the Hill as Bryant College, Mr. Handy became head of the English Department and faculty director of Bryant's band "The Stardusters."

Mr. Handy's books Business English in Practice, Business Correspondence in Practice, and the Transcriber's Handbook, familiar to all Bryant students, were not written as commercial ventures, but were developed to fit a situation. The English Department felt the need for exercise material to supplement the textbooks in use at that time, so Mr. Handy prepared sheets containing instructions and problems and had them passed out to the students. In 1950 the Pirman Publishing Corporation of New York became interested in these works and asked permission to publish the English and Correspondence Workbooks.

Mr. Handy lives in Barrington with his wife, Florence; a nephew, Roger, who is enrolled at Barrington High School; and a daughter, Barbara, who is a student in the secretarial course at Bryant. Robert, his son, who was graduated from Brown University three years ago, is a chemist.

Besides playing the clarinet, saxophone, and flute, Mr. Handy's avocations are gardening and bee-keeping. He is active in church work and is presently a deacon at the Barrington Congregational Church.

Marines, music, movies, and teaching can sum up the career to date of Mr. James P. Ingraham, English and history instructor at Bryant.

Mr. Ingraham, who came to Bryant in February, 1955, can list a most interesting chain of experiences, which began in the early 1940's.

Although he had taught English and history at South Portland (Maine) High School and was an instructor at a remedial English Maine, the previous summers, his first experiences with higher education, both learning and teaching, came during World War II while he was stationed with the Marines at the University of Southern California in Los Angeles, California, as part of the Navy V-12 program. Every morning he instructed officer candidates at the University in hand-to-hand fighting each afternoon he studied music composition under the renowned Lucien Callet.

Before shipping out to the Pacific Theatre of War, Mr. Ingraham, as a student at U.S.C., had the opportunity to play bit parts in several of the productions of two top Hollywood studios, R.K.O. and Warner Brothers. He says, however, that he could never find himself in the picture because he was always lost in the crowd of extras.

Upon his discharge from the First Marine Division in 1946, Mr. Ingraham entered Michigan State University. As a member of the local Musicians' Union, he played the piano in several night clubs in Detroit. He also worked as a credit investigator for the Hooper Holmes Bureau following up delinquent accounts and making retail surveys.

After two years of studying music at Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan, Mr. Ingraham joined the Schenley Distillers' Corporation of New York as a clerk in the records department. After several months he entered New York University and proceeded to earn the degrees of Bachelor of Arts in English literature and Master of Arts in American Civilization. While attending school he worked as an investigator for the Retailers' Commercial Agency.

Mr. Ingraham made the transition from music to literature and civilization in order to attain a thorough background in understanding the culture and background of the English-speaking peoples.

G. J. Kelley ('39) Outstanding Alumnus

By Edward W. Reardon

George J. Kelley, a Bryant graduate, and Vice-president and controller of Swank, Inc., Attleboro, Mass., is a pioneer in the field of automation. Mr. Kelley and Kenneth McCarthy, System Director, created and installed a unique system that links Swank's Los Angeles office with its main office in Attleboro. One of the system's features is a common language tape that is used in newspaper offices. The tape created by Swank can work on typewriters or even adding machines.

Mr. Kelley has also brought automation, in the form of electronics, into the accounting department. This system does all the sorting, calculating, and posting that was formerly done by hand. Of special notice to accounting majors is the fact that this system does away with the vouchers payable register, the cash receipts book, and also the cash disbursement book. All these transactions are put on one tape which is later posted to the general journal.

Mr. Kelley was born in Pawtucket, R. I., and graduated from Pawtucket High School. He graduated from Bryant in 1939, and then worked as staff accountant for East and Frost, C.P.A. During W. W. II, he was with the United States Air Force as Warrent Officer performing duties such as Supervisory Accountant for Cost Plus Contracts, Renegotiations, and Termination of War Contracts. He joined Swank in 1946 as Office Manager, and was promoted to Assistant Controller and Credit Manager in 1950. In 1952 he was appointed Controller, and was elected to the Board of Directors in 1951. In March, 1957, he was elected Vice-President.

Mr. Kelley is married and has a 10 year old daughter. He is a member of the Controllers Institute of America, the American Ordnance Association, a Director of the Rhode Island Association of Credit Men, and a Director of the Jewelers Board of Trade. He also serves on the Executive Committee and is chairman of the Training Committee for the Blackstone Valley District of the Boy Scouts of America.

At Bryant's Homecoming on May 18, 1957, he was presented with an Alumni Award in recognition of outstanding achievement in professional and personal endeavors.

He is the author of numerous magazine articles, some of which are: "Simplified Accounts Receivable and Credit System"; "How Automatic Machines can Simplify a System"; "Easing into Automation"; and "Automation Provides Bridge to New Office Operation Control Techniques."

Mr. Kelley feels that Bryant offers excellent training for anyone entering the business field. He believes that many young people, not necessarily those from Bryant, take the first job offered to them purely for "security" reasons. It is his opinion that this type of "security" is stagnation. His advice to all Bryant graduates is to get a job for the experience it offers, even though the pay may be low at first. He hires men for careers, not for jobs, which means that he hires men for what they can be, not for what they are.

Newman News

By Louise C. Veillancourt

Newman Club has been very active this semester, and many important events have transpired. All of the members have been taking part in these activities.

In March a Get-Acquainted Party was held in the Barn for new members. It was a social gathering with dancing and refreshments following. Each month a communion breakfast was held at St. Joseph's Church on Hope Street.

In April there was a Cardinal Newman Day Communion Breakfast with students from Brown at the Brown Refectory. A highlight of the program was a talk given the guest speaker, Mr. Paul Thomson.

Also in April The New England Newman Club Convention took place at the Narragansett Hotel. Representatives from all parts of New England were present.

On June 23, members and their guests had a picnic at Goddard Park. A taste-tempting lunch was served; and sports were the order of the day afterwards.

Election of officers took place recently, and the slate of officers for September is as follows:

President, George Bellows; Vice-President, Jeanine Morency; Secretary, Pat Weitand; Treasurer, Jerry Montesanto.

At a meeting last month, George Bellows was elected Regional Chairman of the Providence Region which includes Brown University, Rhode Island College of Education, Rhode Island School of Design, University of Rhode Island, Rhode Island School of Pharmacy. His duties in this office include coordinating the workings, and functions of all these clubs, visiting the schools, and in general keeping them active. Also, George will be the Delegate to the New England Province meetings.

Another favorite diversion for Mr. Ingraham is music. Classical music is his favorite; Dixieland jazz, second on his list. He feels that rhythm-and-blues music is well-liked because it gives the young individual an opportunity to express himself in protest against the cramped organization of today's society. It is beautiful, in his opinion, because it provides a useful outlet for energy which ought not to be bottled.

Mr. Ingraham is married and lives in Providence. His wife, Ruth, is in the circulation desk of the Providence Public Library. His favorite outdoor sport is golf, and his favorite indoor avocation is writing fiction. "Why Johnny Can't Spell," the subject of one of his talks on Bryant's View in 1956, was published last year as an editorial in the Southern Providence Journal.

Sun Shines On Picnic

On Wednesday, June 19, the annual Bryant picnic was held at Rocky Point. Upon arising that morning one probably thought that any minute the rain would come pouring down. The rain didn't come, and the day turned out to be beautiful. The next day many sun-burned faces were seen around the campus. Swimming (in the pool and the ocean) was enjoyed by all. At twelve o'clock, a meal of clam chowder, fried clam cakes, and watermelon was served to the four hundred fifty-three students who attended. Many thanks go to Joseph Lemieux, president of the senior class, who was chairman of the day's outing.

The student-faculty game was won by the faculty. The faculty makeshift team was captained by Mr. Ryan, and the team used Tom Hart as pitcher. D. Gallant and A. Perreault were cheerleaders for the winning team.

By now the burns are peeling and everyone is back to the old routine. All who are coming back next year are looking forward to another school picnic.

Typing Awards

Two students received type-writing awards at the recent Job Clinic series.

Brenda Griffin received her award for averaging 75 net words per minute on three 10-minute timed writings. August Arruda, Jr. was presented his award for averaging 76 net words per minute for the month of May.

Who's Who at Bryant

Edo G. Venditti

By Louise C. Vaillancourt

We have at Bryant a man of much experience and wisdom. He is the well dressed, well mannered gentleman seen about the campus. It seems a little odd, perhaps, in the casual life of a college to see a student who looks more like a teacher in bearing as well as in dress. He is Mr. Edo G. Venditti, better known as "Cap" to friends and acquaintances. His nickname comes from the rank he held in the Army — Captain.

Mr. Venditti began his Army career in February of 1932 when he enlisted for duty in the Panama Canal Zone. Altogether, Mr. Venditti spent 2 1/2 years in the Canal Zone. He then was assigned to Fort Monroe in Virginia with the 2nd Coast Artillery Regiment. In January of 1941, he went to Fort Sheridan, Illinois, and was assigned to the 40th AAA Brigade when it was activated there. His duties were that of Sergeant Major of the Brigade Headquarters and First Sergeant of Headquarters Battery. In September, 1941, he was again assigned to Fort Kobbe in the Canal Zone. He was there with the 73d AAA Regiment when Pearl Harbor was attacked.

In 1942 he left Panama for Officers' Candidate School at Camp Davis, North Carolina, and was commissioned a 2nd Lieutenant on November 19, 1942. In April, 1943, his unit went to Oran, North Africa, for advanced training in preparation for the invasion of Italy. The battalion landed at Salerno, Italy, on "D Day." His unit at this time was part of the 36th Division, which was in the Italian Campaign as long as it lasted.

Captain Venditti came back to the States on rotation in 1945 and was assigned to a prisoner-of-war camp at Camp Hereford, Texas, where he was Compound Commander. From there he went to Fort Bliss, Texas, and was assigned to the very first guided missile battalion that was organized. He went to White Sands Proving Grounds at Las Cruces, New Mexico, where he was Executive Officer of Battery "A." Later he became S-4 Officer. It was here that the first V-2 rockets were fired in the United States.

From White Sands he went to Japan on occupation duty and spent three years there. In 1950 he was assigned to Fort Meade, Maryland; and in 1951 he was transferred to the 260th AAA Gun Battalion and was Battery Commander of "A" Battery. He was also S-4 Officer.

He then was assigned to Andrews Air Force Base in Maryland. In 1953, he left Andrews AFB for Fort Lewis, Washington, where he was stationed with the 144th AAA AW (Sp). He left this unit in April, 1954, when he went to Korea and the 15th AAA AW (Sp).

Mr. Venditti lives in Warwick, Rhode Island, with his wife, Catherine, a graduate of Bryant, by the way, and his four children. Edward, 10, Mary Elizabeth, 9, Elaine, 7,

Jeanine Morency

By Terry Fusco

Jeanine Morency, from Fairhaven, Massachusetts, is the newly elected Secretary of the Student Senate. She was graduated from Fairhaven High School in 1956. While in high school, Jeanine was very active in the many social functions the school offered. She was head majorette, a member of the Student Council, glee club, dramatic club, and the yearbook staff.

Having entered Bryant College in September, 1956, she is in the Secretarial Science division and in September, 1957, will major in the Medical Secretarial Course. Jeanine has been President of her Freshman and Sophomore classes, Vice-President of the Newman Club, Secretary-treasurer of the Masquers, a member of the Glee Club, Sigma Iota Chi sorority, and the Student Senate.

After school hours, this very active young lady can be found playing tennis, which is one of her favorite sports, or listening to phonograph records. She is very interested in music and likes all types.

Her personality, initiative, sincere smile, and willingness to help have made Jeanine an outstanding student at Bryant, socially and academically. She is a member of the Dean's List and hopes to become a member of the Key Society.

Joan Gilbert Wins Sigma Iota Chi Scholarship

Miss Joan Gilbert was recently announced the recipient of the Sigma Iota Chi scholarship.

This scholarship is presented in memory of Mrs. Jeanette Carroll Jacobs. Mrs. Jacobs was the former honorary member of Sigma Iota Chi Sorority. The present honorary member is Mrs. Laurelle P. Love, Dean of Women and Director of Placement.

Miss Gilbert resides in Allan Hall, and her home is in Trumbull, Connecticut. She is enrolled in the School of Secretarial Science and is striving for an Executive Secretarial degree.

and Barbara, 10 months. The family lived in Japan when Mr. Venditti was stationed there. The children have had an excellent opportunity to see many places and learn new things through their travels.

Of Bryant, Mr. Venditti says, "Bryant is a good business school. That's the reason why I came here." He expects to graduate in August, 1958. Mr. Venditti is in the Business Administration course and is taking Management. He is in his third semester.

Chi Gamma Iota Takes League Crown

Chi Gamma Iota, defending champion in the Bryant softball league, notched the 1957 league title by finishing the regular season undefeated.

With player-coach Joe Lemieux at the helm, the Maroon and Grey compiled a 9-0 record. Chi Gamma also won their first playoff encounter last week.

A solid hitting attack, paced by centerfielder Ralph Pellicano and rightfielder Ralph Britten, were leading factors in the team's record. Ray McKone and Bob West, along with shortstop Don Haggerty, also contributed some lusty swings.

Bob Blinn again handled the pitching chores, taking up where he left off in last year's play-off. Bob won all nine games this year, although being relieved in a few games by the team's No. 1 reliever, Jim Kresslin.

Mike Brady and Bob Haughian were hold-overs from last year's club, and both again did fine jobs in the outfield.

At first base, Joe Kirwan, left-handed drag bunt specialist held forth, and Gene Gadai, utility infielder-outfielder saw lots of action.

KT Edged by Chi Gam In Playoff Tilts

The Brothers of Kappa Tau wish to congratulate its softball team on its impressive showing this year. The way the ball club came through all season, and the fight they put up in the playoffs made them one of the most respected teams in the league. The team ended up with a fine six and three record for the season. Buddy Wright and Bill Yusko did some fine playing in the outfield, and the third base and shortstop slots were well played by Church Dean and Joe Fatone respectively. The pitchers, Chuck Klein and Tony Triano, capably handled the hurling chores. Bob McGivony's spirit, sportsmanship, and excellent catching ability contributed to KT's successful season. The team's hitting was sparked by Buddy Wright and Chuck Dean. Kappa Tau's impressive record could not have been achieved without the full support, spirit, and fine playing of each individual player. The team would like to express its deepest gratitude to Herb Weinkoop for his excellent job in coaching the team. Also, thanks to all the Sisters of APK who attended each game and rooted for us.

The players on the team were Charles Dean, Joe Fatone, Herb Weinkoop, Nick Janikies, Bob McGivony, Bill Yusko, Buddy Wright, Gene Ridoft, Chuck Klein, Tony Triano, Ronnie Berk, Art Crandall, Robert Doiron, Chuck Lautz, Graham "Otto" Mason, and Dick Studley.

Campus Capers

Doris King Terry Fusco

Dig out your bihs fellow Bryans for the score of banquets on the horizon will include you all. Some lucky persons will be eating out three nights in a row—Tuesday, July 9 the Archway Banquet at Brook Manor. Wednesday, July 10 the Student Senate Banquet at the Admiral Inn. Thursday, July 11 the First Annual Intramural Sports Banquet at the Narragansett Hotel. Two of the pledge formals were held last week. They were Alpha Theta Chi and Delta Sigma Chi's at Caruso's Restaurant and Phi Upsilon and Chi Gamma Iota's at the Pocasset Country Club. The sisters of Kappa Delta Kappa held their Mother-Daughter banquet at the Admiral Inn on June 30. This is an annual event enjoyed very much by the mothers and sisters of KDK. Congratulations to Chi Gamma Iota and Phi Upsilon for copping first place at the Bryant Brevities. That's all the news until February. Till then Marilyn and Donna will be taking over for us. Good Luck Kappa!! (A) to "Special Good Luck" to the C(M) takeovers!

Fashion Skit Is Stunt-Nite Hit

The annual presentation of Stunt Night began at 7:30 in the calagymnasium Tuesday, June 25. Introducing the skits, Fred Ferris and John Michaels did a remarkable job of entertaining the audience with their jokes, songs, and merry-making. Four skits put on by various sororities and fraternities exhibited the imagination and talent of the students.

Phi Upsilon and Chi Gamma Iota displayed their cleverness in their prize-winning skit. The first act was an imitation of a Japanese G I by Brad Lyon. Brad was congratulated on his splendid performance and received special mention at the end of the program. The sisters of Phi U depicted an automobile scene in Act II. Then, came Act III—the fabulous fashion show with the new trend in apparel modeled by the brothers. A bridal outfit, a sheath, housedress, evening gowns, and negligees were accented by combat boots and sneakers. The first prize of $25 was presented for this skit.

The second prize of $15 went to Sigma Iota Chi and Phi Sigma Nu for their portrayal of "Is This Your

Fitta Notches Medalist Honors In R. I. Tourney

John Fitta, 14-year old A&F senior, performed an outstanding feat last week by winning the medalist honors in the Rhode Island State Junior Golf Championships. Fitta shot an astonishing 71 to take the field of 150 contenders for match play.

The accomplishment was even more remarkable since John was shuttling between school and the links while rolling up his leading score. At 8 o'clock he attended class at Bryant, at 9 o'clock he took off at Metacomet and at 1 o'clock he started his specialties test.

The break-neck pace lasted through Wednesday, June 26, when John advanced to the quarter-final round before being eliminated by George Kilborn in the 12th match of the tournament. Kilborn won the round on the 19th hole, by sinking a fantastic 18-foot putt.

By winning the medalist crown, Fitta attained the peak of his young golfing career. Although he started on the links while attending East Providence High School, John wasn't able to capture the brass ring of tournament play until this year.

His talent on the greens comes naturally, since his older and younger brother both were and are golfing champs. Bob, his 17-year old brother, won the R. I. Caddy championship last year with a sensational par-shattering 67. Also, in last week's Junior Medal Play, Bob shot an "ace" (hole in one) on the 12th hole.

Both Fittas caddy at Metacomet and can be found playing whenever they aren't working at their favorite pastime.

John will graduate this August and his plans are somewhat hazy at this point since he still hasn't fulfilled his service commitment. He feels that perhaps he might secure a position in private accounting until he learns definitely about military service.

However, one thing is certain: golf will play a prominent part in any future plans of John Fitta.

"Life?" Nick Erbocker, a famous East Side celebrity, was honored as their special guest. In their relatives, and cellmates were all on hand to greet him. Nick was awarded with a warrant for his arrest. But, he was released at the end of the program by his family.

"Sigma Iota Beta and Beta Iota presented "Here Come the Girls," a three-act play describing a college weekend in the roaring twenties. Act I was A Meeting of the Girls at Old Saybrook Station. Act II, Our Dates, What Dollars! Act III, We Can't Dance, Not Much! Their ability to sing and dance was clearly shown in the musical version of their skit. Third prize of $10 was given to this sorority and fraternity.

"You Are Now Here" was presented by Sigma Lambda Theta and Beta Sigma Chi. The original idea of portraying the different centuries brought a laugh in everyone in the audience. Come life, the age of chivalry, and the future century were depicted in this humorous skit.

Sororities-Fraternities Highlight Their Activities

All Sum-up with Elections, Banquets and Formals

With the end of the semester just around the corner, many campus fraternities have been reviewing their past year's accomplishments and electing new officers for the coming year.

ALPHA THETA CHI

New officers elected for the September term are: President, Ray Kiely; Vice-President, John Owyll; Secretary, Stan D'Ambrosio; Treasurer, Lou Fracassa; Sergeant at Arms, Tony Altieri; Historian, Jerry Lovely and Chaplain, Rocco Lancia.

Delta Sigma Chi and Alpha Theta Chi held their annual pledge banquet June 18 at Caruso's Restaurant. Another highspot of the June month was the picnic at Goddard Park. Both outings were well attended and the brothers and sisters of the respective fraternity and sorority enjoyed themselves greatly.

Social events for July were a party for seniors of both organizations, a beach party at Narragansett Pier, and a weekend at Eastover.

DELTA SIGMA CHI

The sisters of Delta Sigma Chi installed the following new officers for the next term. They were Roberta Cerrito, president; Marie Roberts, vice-president; Ann Almonte, secretary; Pauline Bordieri, treasurer; Diana Polcastri, assistant treasurer; Gloria Pedrone, athletic director; Janet Pearson, historian and Mary Love, pledge mistress.

It was announced at the last meeting of the sorority that plans are being made for an Alumni Association to be started.

SIGMA LAMBDA PI

At Sigma Lambda Pi's special meeting June 11, election of officers for next semester were held. After a close contest, the following officers were elected:

President, Bob Goldenberg; Vice-President, Everett Efros; Treasurer, Evan Katsenberg; Secretary, Irwin Weinstein; Pledge Master, Phil Geller and Marshall, Charlie Hoffman.

SIGMA LAMBDA THETA

On June 14 the sisters of Theta spent the weekend at Hyannis on Cape Cod. All of the sisters who went thoroughly enjoyed themselves, and they are looking forward to spending another weekend there before the summer is over.

This semester the Pledge Banquet will be held at Eileen Darling's restaurant on July 8. Along with the formal initiation of the February pledge, Gary Deers, the officers who served this year will be given small gifts. The outgoing officers also will give talks concerning their experiences in office.

Another big social event that the sisters are eagerly anticipating is the Pledge Formal. This semester's dance, sponsored by the brothers of Beta Sigma Chi and sisters of Theta, will be held at the Wannan Country Club.

And completing the Theta news for this issue, the sisters held elections of officers for next year. The results were as follows:

KAPPA DELTA KAPPA

At a recent meeting of Kappa Delta, Kappa sorority, Connie Giffos was elected to lead the sorority next semester. Other officers elected were: Vice-President, Tina Grzyb; Secretary, Rita Michaud; Treasurer, Nancy Dell; Alumnae Secretary, Jean Rogers; Co-Alumnae Secretary, Carol Sullivanoff; Athletic Director, Ester Felix; Historian, Mary Ann Herbert; and Pledge Mistress, Lois Hasson. The sisters had a busy week lined up beginning June 25. On June 27, a picnic was held at the summer home of the outgoing President, Joan St. Godard. On June 30, the sorority's annual Mother-Daughter Banquet was held at the Admiral Inn. Installation of incoming officers was held at the Admiral Inn. The sisters wish to congratulate sister Carol Spadaro on her recent engagement to Nunzio Aiello, a brother of Tau Epsilon. The couple was recently honored at a joint party sponsored by Tau Epsilon and Kappa Delta Kappa on June 14.

TAU EPSILON

Bryant's teacher-training society held elections, Tuesday, June 25, in Quinlan Hall. The outgoing officers, all of whom are juniors, are going out to the various high schools in Rhode Island to begin their practice teaching. They are: President, Robert Perrone; Vice-President, Robert Moorhead; Secretary, Terry Fusco; Treasurer, Joyce Corp; Corresponding Secretary, Ann Marie Nunes; Historian, Joyce Blinkhorn; and Student Senate Representative, Joyce Etchella.

The incoming officers elected are all women and all Freshmen. When they fill their positions in September, they will only be sophomores. The incoming officers are: President, Donna Ricci; Vice-President, Marilyn Stillman; Secretary, Rita Michaud; Treasurer, Joyce Norlon; Corresponding Secretary, Sheryl Exley; Historian, Ann Marie Moorhead; and Student Senate Representative, Carol Sorensen. Installation will take place the latter part of July.

BETA IOTA BETA

Beta Iota Beta swimmers took two out of three events at the school picnic at Rocky Point, June 19. Fred Bowers of BIB stroked to an easy victory in the 10-yard freestyle. Sue Beynon, Judy Sjogran, "Cy" Cybulski, and Dan Spraght, SIB and BIB swimmers, took first place in the team relay event.

Following along in the athletic vein, BIB finished the regular 1957 Bryant baseball season with 4 wins, 4 losses, and 1 tie. The team batting average for the season was .325 for 231 times at bat. The team batted with a total of 75 hits, 22 stolen bases, 65 runs, and 43 runs batted in.

BIB lost a friendly game to "Cy's" Tigers on June 19 by a score of 13-12. A home run by Joe Iassogna with two aboard in the top half of the last inning clinched the game for the Tigers. The winning and losing pitchers were Tom Del Santo and Matt Clark, respectively.

The formal initiation of the pledges of Beta Iota Beta, and the installation of officers recently elected was held Saturday June 29 at the Admiral Inn.

The guest speaker was Paul Hamway, president of the newly founded Beta Iota Beta Alumni Association. Following the speech, awards were presented to some of the outstanding members of the fraternity.

New officers elected by BIB were Siro Gasperla, president; Matt Clark, vice president; Dick Parmenter, secretary; Tom Romano, treasurer; Fred Bowers, Sergeant at arms; Gary Chace, alumni secretary; Ron Sader, historian and Bob Taramino, chaplain. The retiring president, Richard Cybulski, congratulated the new officers as they were announced.

After the elections the new president appointed Ron Sader as social director, Joseph Iassogna, athletic director; Rob Reed and George Mouton, co-pledge masters, and Tom Del Santo as publicity chairman.

SIGMA IOTA CHI

On Wednesday, June 27, Sigma Iota Chi's annual banquet was held at the Martinique. This banquet serves a dual purpose in the sorority: First, Sigma's new officers are installed; and secondly it is the new sisters final farewell to the graduating sisters. These departing sisters were presented with beautiful gifts, given them by the new sisters as a token of their appreciation for the help, advice, and friendship shown in the sorority.

SIC had their summer weekend June 28 to 30. The girls all had a wonderful time, and the beautiful surroundings at the Cape made the weekend one that will always be remembered at Bryant.

The Sisters of SIC entered the softball playoffs undefeated. It is a fact, and one which we are very proud of, that SIC hasn't lost a game since 1955.

SIC is proud to announce its new slate of officers for the 1957-1958 year. They are as follows:

Worthy Matron—Bea Paine
Worthy Protectress—Norma Shores
Worthy Scribe—Pris Vanacour
Worthy Keeper of the Treasury—Lorraine Boyajian
Worthy Directress—Judy Goodwin
Parchment Editor—Judy Arnold
Athletic Director—Dorothy Casagrande
Worthy Guard—Priscilla Niemeyer
Alumni Secretary and Publicity Chairman—Dorothy Roy
Historian and Pin Chairman—Dee Leiss

BETA SIGMA CHI

On June 18, Beta held their election of officers for next semester. The brothers gave deep consideration to their choices, and the results were as follows:

President—Larry Remillard
Vice-President—Walt Bucko
Secretary—Bill Roy
Treasurer—Paul Brazeau
Assistant Treasurer—Gerry Choquette
Athletic Director—Don McIlwain
Alumni Secretary—Ray Lassen
Sergeant-at-Arms—Bill Ehrhart
Chaplain—Ward Angell
Historian—Bill Newton

Beta's Formal Installation Banquet was held at the Admiral Inn in Cumberland on Wednesday, June 20. All the new officers were sworn into office and twenty-one pledges took the oath of Beta brotherhood. Gene Sullivan was awarded a plaque as the Outstanding Brother of the semester. Outgoing President Tony Giglio was praised for the good work he has done for the frat. Don Pfister did an outstanding job as Toastmaster and Messrs. Henry Lee, David Espey, and Bob Paul, Beta advisors were present.

Beta's Pledge Formal was a tremendous success at the Wannan Country Club in Cumberland. The dance, held on Saturday, June 29, was well attended and the Brothers of Beta and the Sisters of Theta and their dates had a wonderful time.

PHI UPSILON

Phi Upsilon's pledge banquet was held with Chi Gamma Iota at the Pocssett Country Club on June 21. It proved to be a great affair and all were glad to have attended.

Installation of officers was held after formal initiation of the new sisters at Judy Ferren's home in May. The slate for September is as follows:

President, Barbara Kazinski; Vice President, Martha Petracca; Corresponding Secretary, Joyce Cook; Recording Secretary, Doris Estep; Treasurer, Hazel Olson; Assistant Treasurer, Terry Leonard; Pledge Mistress, Esther Dawicki; Chaplain, Mone O'Connell; Athletic Director, Carolyn Durell; Historian, Nini Moore.

On Thursday, June 27, the annual Mother and Daughter banquet was held at Elsa's Lodge in Pawtucket. At the banquet a gift was presented to Miss Audrey Perreault, one of the advisers. Miss Perreault will be married in August. Gifts were presented to both advisers, Miss Gallant and Miss Perreault. Georgiana Brigid, the outgoing president, also received a gift from the sisters.

Chi Gamma and Phi Upsilon placed first in B. C.'s annual Stunt Night contest.

CHI GAMMA IOTA

On June 25, Bryant College Annual Stunt Night, the brothers of Chi Gamma walked away with top honors, and a special award was given to Brad Lyon, a very talented fellow. The skit they presented actually stole the show. It was based on the idea of a fashion show, and the boys modeled various outfits, sport togs as well as dressy items.

Among the notables in the cast were Mike Brady, Joe Kirwan, Harry Gaudet, John Terry, Herb Meister, Ed Bertolini, Brad Lyon, Phil Medeiros, Ralph Manuel, Don Haggerty, Milt Shovelton, Bob Blinn. Another brother, Johnny Michael made the show sparkle with his own brand of humor in his part as one of the emcees.

On Sunday, June 16, the brothers invited the sisters of Phi Upsilon to a picnic at Goddard Park. It was a beautiful day, perfect for an outside affair. All of the brothers and sisters had a fine time.

June 21 was the date of Chi Gamma's and Phi U's pledge banquet held at the Pocssett Country Club, and a most enjoyable evening it was. More than a hundred brothers and sisters and their guests attended.

After a delicious dinner, Mike Brady, the outgoing president, welcomed everyone and introduced the advisers. After interesting talks by Mr. Babcock and Mr. Homan, installation of officers took place. The slate for September is as follows:

President, Terry Maban; Vice President, Pete Barrilla; Recording Secretary, Bob West; Treasurer, Jerry Corridoa; Corresponding Secretary, Joe Colombo; Assistant Treasurer, Phil Gallucci; Sergeant-at-Arms, Bob Haggerty; Historian, John Terry; Pledge Master, Charley Rivard; Chaplain, Brad Lyon; Alumni Secretary, Lou Tarrant; Athletic Director, Ralph Blinn; Reporter, Dave Cherry.

After introductions, Harry Gaudet and his group rendered a memorable music and everyone took to the floor.

Student Senate Minutes

"Mr. President"

Harry Fiedler, President-elect of Student Senate

The following elections took place:

President, Harry Fiedler; Vice-President, Pete Barilla; Secretary, Jeanine Morency; Treasurer, John Nicholson.

Motion was made that the elections for Student Senate officers be closed. Motion was passed.

Meeting adjourned at 3:50.

Respectfully submitted,

Jeanine Morency,

Secretary

APK & KT Summarize Eventful Semesters

By Rita Harte

September, 1956, marked the beginning of another eventful year for Alpha Phi Kappa and Kappa Tau. As soon as the brothers and sisters came on campus to start fall classes, a round of closed parties began.

On October 5, KT and APK held a Fall Frolic dance which was a huge success. October also was the month for the much-enjoyed pizza parties.

On November 14, a smorgasbord dinner-dance was held at the Country House for the sorority-fraternity alumni reunion.

In November, the annual smokers were held and in December the pledges were put through initiation.

Kappa Tau's Turkey Trot dance was held, and, as in years before, was an enjoyable event.

On December 14, the Christmas Cocktail party was held and was a topic of conversation for weeks afterwards.

Pledge formal was held on January 19 at Lindy Ball Room.

Sandy Tuttle was Kappa Tau's candidate for Snow Queen, and to show their enthusiasm for this favorite sister, they again chose her to represent Kappa Tau in the May Queen Contest.

On May 10, Kappa Tau held a fabulous Dixieland dance called "The Cotton Picker's Ball."

On June 14, the sisters left on their annual week-end at the Cape. A few of the brothers volunteered to act as "chauffeurs," and, by the end of the week-end, several more of the brothers came down to enjoy the sun and surf—and the company of the sisters.

A cocktail party was held before the Spring Formal on June 22, and on June 23, a beach party was held at Moonstone.

On Tuesday, June 18, APK's new slate of officers was elected:

President, Claudia Veglia; Vice President, Iris Kingsley; Recording Secretary, Carol Sorensen; Corresponding Secretary, Joan Gilbert; Treasurer, Rhea Remz; Athletic Director, Wilma Richter; Alumni Secretary, Margaretha Campo; Worthy Guard, Ginger Cochiola.

Phi Sig Elects Officers

On May 13, 17 prospective brothers began pledging Phi Sigma Nu. All of them received their third degree at the annual pledge banquet which was held at the Riviera Cafe on June 10. Mr. McCabe was the guest speaker, and his speech was enjoyed by all. Also present were Mr. Vinal and Mr. Weaver, advisors of the fraternity.

On May 15 the prospective brothers, under the supervision of pledge master Bud Adams, went out to The Lakeside Home in Warwick to do odd jobs around the grounds.

The brothers of Phi Sigma Nu took 15 children to the circus at the Rhode Island Auditorium on May 23. On June 9 the brothers of Phi Sig and the sisters of S. I. C. held a picnic at Pettaquamscutt Lake, and needless to say a good time was had by all.

The brothers and sisters are now planning to enjoy the weekend of June 28 on Cape Cod. At the regular meetings on June 18 the brothers elected the officers for next semester. The new officers are Bud Adams, president; Bill Newton, vice-president; Bob Lutz, treasurer; Jack Ward, assistant treasurer; Don DiBiase, secretary; Hank Murphy, assistant secretary; John Rebellio, chaplain; Gordon Larsen, sergeant-at-arms; Paul Boucher, grand councilman; Jerry Cerel, alumnae director and Tom Hede, athletic director.
